JOYNER IS STABBED.

Atlanta, Sept. 23.—John Cunningham, chairman of the populist party of Georgia, stabbed Howlett Joyner at the exposition grounds tonight. Joyner is not expected to live. He is a democrat, and formerly held a position in the capitol here.

Cunningham says that Joyner walked up to him and struck him without provocation. Joyner is too weak to make a statement.

Cunningham is from Cobb county, which is Joyner's original home.

It is probable that a political quarrel preceded the fight. Joyner is a brother of the chief of Atlanta's fire department.
